QUOTES IN THE NEWS

"The CIA (Central Intelligence Agency) has intimidated them (National Student Association leaders) with personal threats ranging from character assassination to placing pressure upon the 'establishment' to reject them from responsible roles in American society."—Philip Werdell, a National Student Association press liaison representative.

"If we turned back the Communists and made them milder and easier to live with, it was because we stopped them in certain areas and the student area was one of them."—Allen W. Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency.
